

Telford Partnership

We Train Teachers

If you think Teaching is for you and you have a degree come and talk to us at the TELFORD Partnership about a PGCE.

Telford Partnership is an alliance between 5 Primary, 3 Secondary schools in Telford and Wolverhampton University.

We offer School direct PGCE teaching qualifications in a friendly and supportive partnership which we think offers a great 'hands on' course to gain your PGCE.

We are now taking applications for starting the course in September 20.

If teaching is a career you are considering come and along and see if the Telford Partnership can offer you the course you are looking for.
